

100-Day World Challenge To End the COVID-19 Pandemic

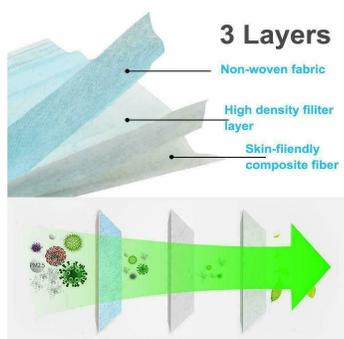

Recently, the new Omicron variant of COVID-19 became the most contagious variant of COVID-19 and caused the record outbreak of Coronavirus around the world. On January 10, 2022, the United States reached the record of 1,433,977 new cases of Coronavirus infection in one day. Even the double vaccination could not stop the spread of this super contagious variant of COVID-19. It seems that the Pandemic of COVID-19 Coronavirus is out of control now.

However, the ray of hope always comes after the darkness before dawn. God has revealed his plan of salvation for the world, and this COVID-19 Pandemic will be ended soon. Aside from the recent medical development of new vaccines and medicines, the Holy Spirit inspired YiChen Master to develop the new Healthy Lung Meditation to help people enhance their immune system and strengthen their lungs for fighting against COVID-19 and its new variants. Combined with the preventative protocols and existing medicines, this Healthy Lung Meditation can help people end the COVID-19 Pandemic with the Blessing of God.

Now, YiChen Master will start the “100-Day Challenge to End the Pandemic of COVID-19 Coronavirus” starting from January 8, 2022 to April 17, the Easter of 2022. During this 100-day Challenge Period, we will teach people how to practice the Healthy Lung Meditation to enhance your immune system and strengthen your lungs for fighting against COVID-19 and its new variants. We will also invite doctors and scientists to share the recent medical research and successful testimonials on the treatment of COVID-19 Coronavirus. It’s time for all people in the world to work together and share their successful experience and medical research to end this COVID-19 Pandemic.

We’d like to invite all the people around the world to join this “100-Day Challenge to End the COVID-19 Pandemic” and work together to fight against COVID-19 Coronavirus. Together, we can defeat the Coronavirus and end this COVID-19 Pandemic with the Blessing of God.

Here are the four aspects of the “100-Day World Challenge to End the COVID-19 Pandemic”

1. Protect Yourself against the Super Contagious Coronavirus

The COVID-19 and its new variants are the most cunning viruses in the world now, which can deceive the human immune system and cause great harm to the internal organs of the human body. So, the first line of defense is to wear a mask and keep social distance in the public places to protect yourself from the infection of the virus.

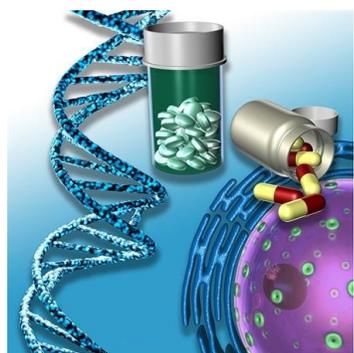

Do not under-estimate the danger and harm of Coronavirus.

2. Strengthen Your Lungs and Immune System with the Healthy Lung Meditation

The Qian Yuan Healthy Lung Meditation combines several traditional Qi Gong Meditation and Tai Chi movements with over two thousand years of history. It can help people enhance their immune system and strengthen their lungs to fight against COVID-19 and help infected people receive healthy recovery.

The best defense system is inside your body.
